

Dean Keating – Big Beat Entertainment

Dean Keating is a fresh stand up comedian who is suitable for any room where there are people that like to laugh. Offering two types of show to appeal to as wide an audience as possible.

Dean's style of stand up comedy can be seen by all the family making him the perfect choice for family audiences. This all round entertaining show has a mix of comedy, magic and ventriloquism which makes it perfect for any event.

Dean is also The Man with the Mask and has performed this show around the world.

This routine will ensure that there will be laughter at any event and is great for corporate events, as Dean won't stop until you have all your attendees on your side. The risk when booking a corporate comedian is will the audience find him funny? The Man with the Mask routine includes the audience to be the star of the show, by carefully pre-selecting the volunteer he can have the whole room in the comedian's hand and they will be talking about this event for years to come.

Dean has taken his shows from small intimate comedy club gigs with a few people through to massive white collar boxing events with the audience hungry for laughs. Dean will ensure that by booking him you will get stress-free, no hassle entertainment for your next event.
