

The Beatbox Collective - Big Beat Entertainment

This is a show that has to be seen to be believed! Expect the unexpected with out of this world soundscapes combined with some physical theatrics, originally composed musical pieces and recognise well know medleys that will rattle your ribcage, shake up your chakras and melt your mind!

The 2015 World Beatbox champions – The Beatbox Collective are a super human group who have collectively won nearly every beatbox competition on the planet, alongside many notable accolades. Chris Evans said “How amazing was that? That was unbelievable.” They were dubbed “The new rockstars of the music world” by BBC World News and Jonathan Ross said “It’s incredible what they do just with their mouths”.

The Collective have had an extraordinary career since forming in 2012, having headlined at major Acapella festivals around the world, launched Toyota’s new Aygo brand, TV appearances and major arena venues and even the Royal Albert Hall.

If you are looking for a show to leave your guests stunned and amazed, look no further than The Beatbox Collective.
